

Shot 1

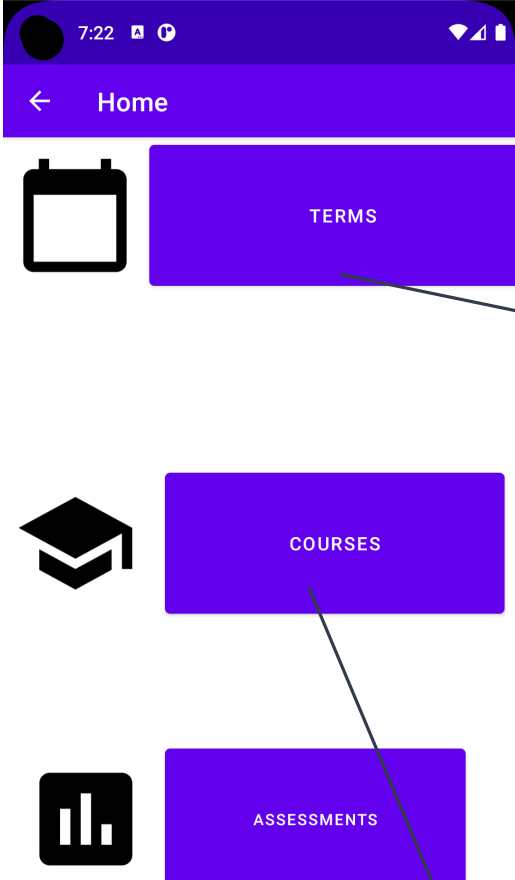

Ember: Academic Organizer

ENTER

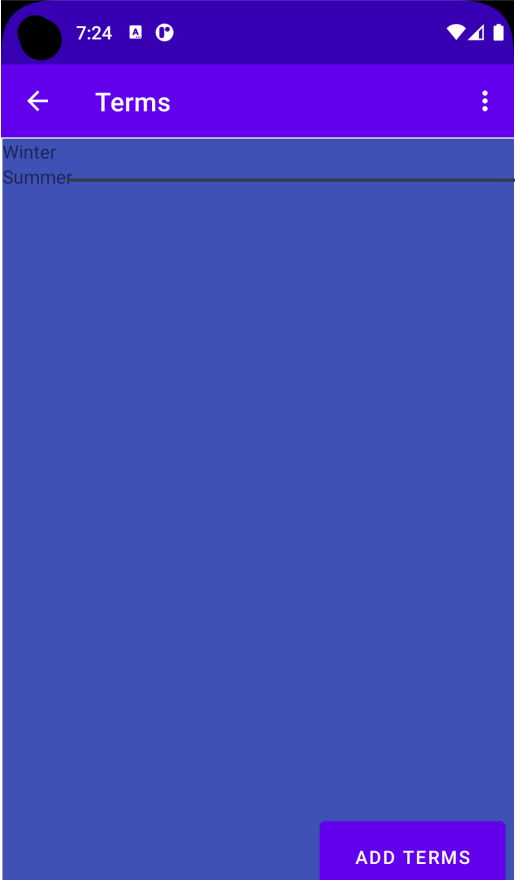

User is presented with Login page. clicking enter, navigates to the home screen.

Shot 2

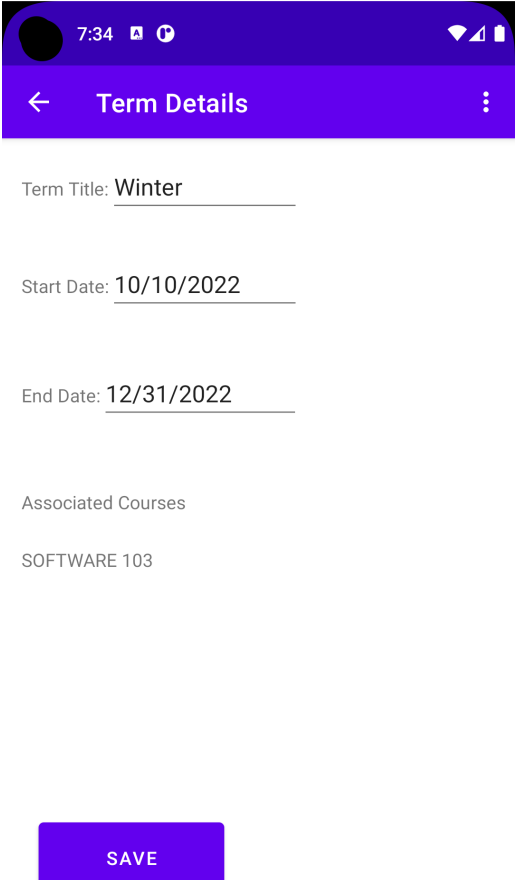

User is presented with three options, Terms, Courses, and Assessments. Clicking any one of these will take the user to the corresponding screen with a list view.

Shot 3

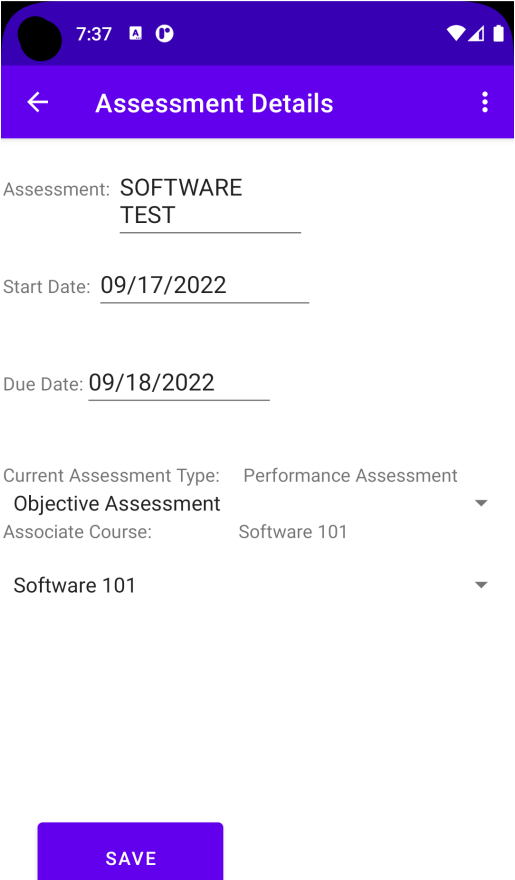

From the terms screen the user has two options. Click on the term to view its details or add a term.

Shot 4

User can view and edit the terms details, and see an associated list of courses.

Shot 3

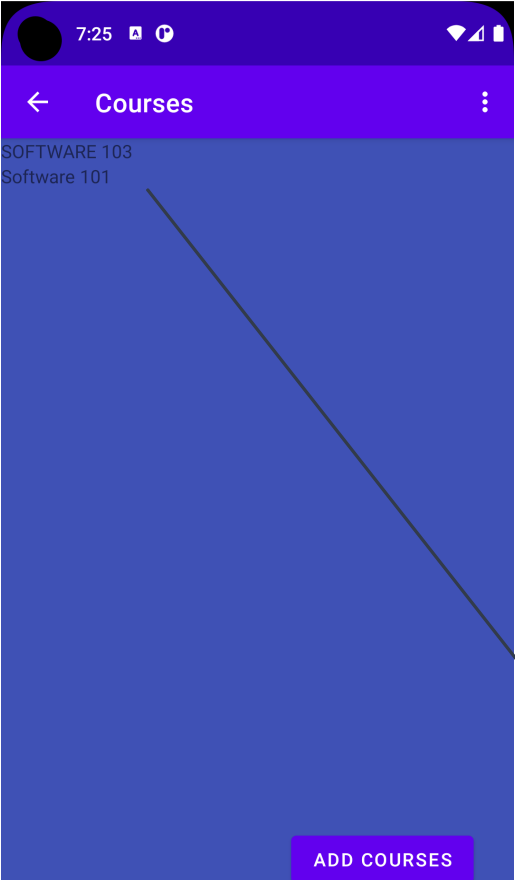

User can view and edit the assessment details, and see an associated list of courses.

Shot 3

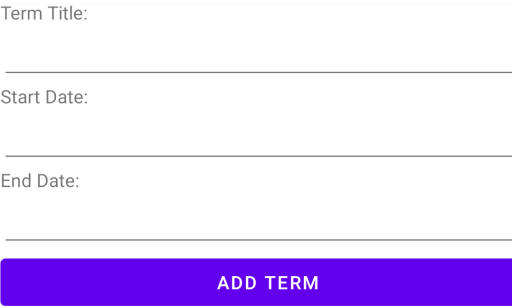

From the Assessments screen the user has two options. Click on the assessment to view its details or add a assessment.

Shot 3

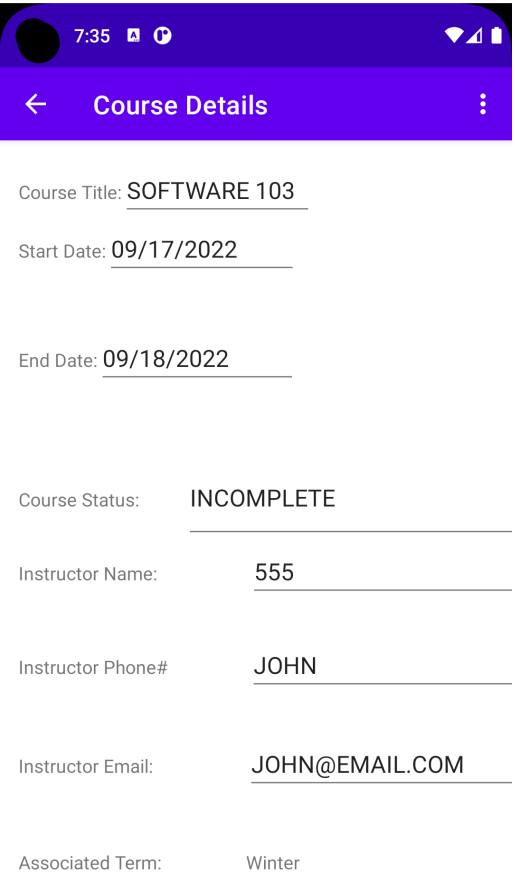

From the courses screen the user has two options. Click on the course to view its details or add a course.

Shot 4

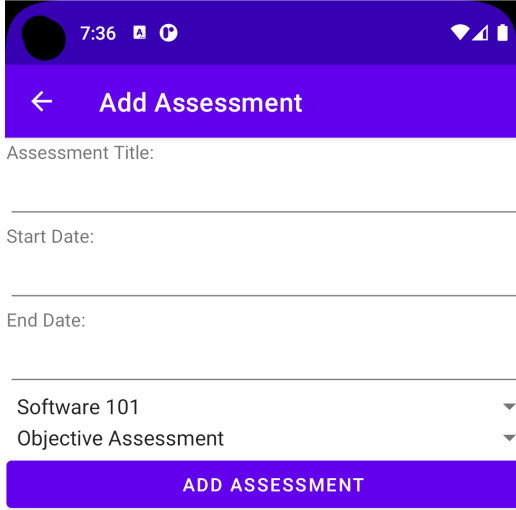

User can add a term which will populate previous screen with new term added.

Shot 4

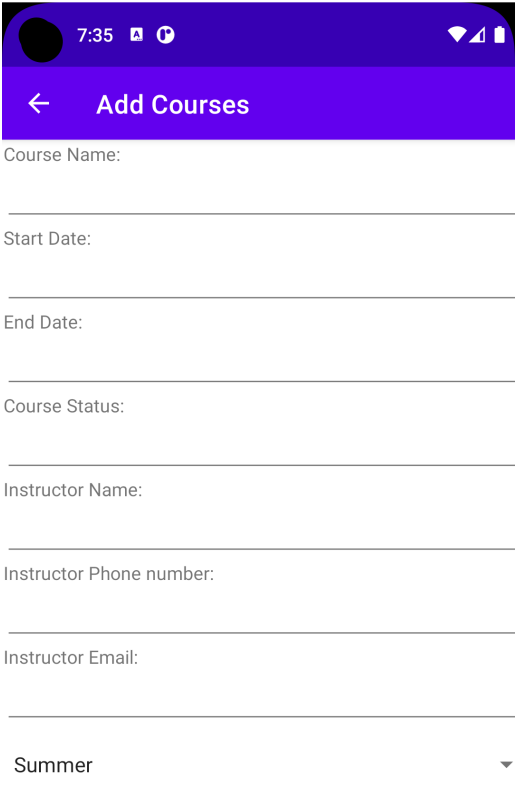

User can view and edit the courses details, and see an associated list of assessments.

Shot 4

User can add a assessment which will populate previous screen with new assessment added. The user can also associate a course with an assessment.

Shot 4

User can add a course which will populate previous screen with new course added. The user can also associate a term with the course. The ability to add and share notes, and set notifications from the screen.